Colonel Joe J. Miller
Signal Officer
Headquarters United States Army, Pacific
APO 958

Dear Colonel Miller:

Thanks very much for your letter of March 19th. [redacted] who is Chief of our Mission on Kauai, has kept me informed of the efforts you are making to reduce circuit outages from Kauai to your relay center. Please accept my sincere thanks for this effort. It appears from Washington that the service has been greatly improved since my visit to Hawaii last month.

Please be assured again of my full appreciation of the many obstacles which are confronting you in carrying out your overall mission with a critical shortage of technically trained personnel, and let me again express my thanks for the services you are rendering us on Kauai.

Sincerely,

L. K. WHITE
Chief, FBIB
